

Scott Bicentennial Park

Scott Bicentennial Park offers a variety of recreational items. This wonderful park includes a playground as well as a toddler's playground. It has a Skateboard Facility, basketball courts, horseshoe pits, volleyball, a frisbee golf field, and a baseball field. Laying by the Tongue River, Scott Bicentennial Park has bike/walk/run path that snakes around natural habitat and displays the wonderful plants and wild life of Northeast Wyoming.

Scott Bicentennial Park also has two gazebos with picnic tables under them. To reserve the gazebos, call the Dayton Town Hall at 307-655-2217. Call the Town Hall for schedule of summer movies in the park.
